SEND LETTERS TO THE CHINESE EMBASSY

(Mr. BILBRAY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BILBRAY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in condemnation of the reprehensible acts perpetrated by the Government of China on its people. It is unacceptable behavior within the community of nations to viciously attack and slaughter hundreds of nonviolent civilian demonstrators.

Mr. Speaker, as the United States Government condemns such behavior around the world, we must condemn it in China. I support the efforts of the President in cutting military trade and extending visas of Chinese students. I believe we have to go beyond that.

What has happened to the Chinese students is an abomination and reminiscent of what happened in Nazi Germany, where the American Government stood by and said, "That is an internal matter of the German Government; we cannot do anything." I think every Member of Congress should send a letter immediately to the People's Republic of China's Embassy, and the American people should send letters showing their abhorrence of what has happened. If we fail to do it, what will happen in China will be to continue on, and we will see slaughters of hundreds of thousands of innocent civilians who want one thing, democracy and freedom.

Mr. Speaker, they have come to the United States, and those students have learned what it is like to be and live in America. Let us give them the same kind of rights that we have.

God bless those people who are fighting for democracy and freedom in China.

AMERICA SHOULD SPEAK TO CHINA WITH ONE VOICE

(Mr. BROOMFIELD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BROOMFIELD. Mr. Speaker, whatever action our country takes regarding China, I think it is important that we speak with one voice. This is no time for wildcat policymaking.

The Chinese students, elements within the army, Government officials, and the Chinese people are clearly listening to voices from the outside world.

Mr. Speaker, in a fast-moving situation, I believe President Bush has chosen wisely among the options for responding to the events in China. His suspension of weapons sales is a very concrete message that America cannot ignore the brutal action of Chinese officials. His decision to maintain our Ambassador in China means we will keep whatever leverage we have to influence moderation within the Chinese Government. This carrot-and-stick policy, in my opinion, is the best way to handle the problem.

However, as events transpire, the United States should be speaking with one voice. President Bush has made a good start in developing a wise policy. He deserves bipartisan support.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SPECIAL ORDER IN MEMORY OF THE LATE HONORABLE CLAUDE PEPPER

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I wish to announce that on June 20, 1989, there will be a special order of 1 hour taken in tribute to our late Member, Senator Pepper, at which time I will control the time and yield to other Members who would like to speak.

THE MOVEMENT FOR DEMOCRACY IN CHINA

(Mr. BENNETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, about a week ago there was a resolution on the floor about the matter that has come up about China, and Members of Congress unanimously expressed their desire to be behind the movement for democracy in China.

I congratulate the President upon his tempered approach to this matter. I think it is a very important thing that is happening in the world, and I, from the bottom of my heart, hope that democracy can prevail and that the better part of judgment would be shown on the part of the existing Government of China so that they can bring together the forces of democracy and freedom in our time.

Mr. Speaker, I want to be a part of that, and I hope all of us will be a part of bringing that about.

HELIUM ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1989

(Mr. CRAIG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing the Helium Act Amendments of 1989.

This legislation provides for a phase-out of the Bureau of Mines' current program of helium sales to Federal agencies over a 3- to 4-year transition period as private sector capacity for helium production becomes available. At the same time, this legislation would retain the Bureau of Mines' role in promoting the conservation of helium for future use.

This bill would authorize the Secretary of the Interior to permit or require Federal agencies to purchase all Federal helium requirements from the private sector by October 1, 1993. Currently all sales to Federal agencies must be from the Federal helium stockpile.

This legislation would assure that helium, which is crucial for aerospace and defense, would be conserved but would place the sale and production in the private sector rather than in the Federal bureaucracy, as is now the case. This action would allow market forces to work rather than forcing Federal planning and control to establish price and the supply and demand for helium.

I encourage speedy consideration of this legislation.

TURMOIL IN CHINA

(Mr. ANDERSON asked and given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the hundreds of Chinese students and civilians who lost their lives in Tiananmen Square, in Beijing, China, when government troops and tanks used deadly force to break up the pro-democracy movement which has been going on in China for over 6 weeks.

These students captured the attention of the world when they paraded to the center of Beijing in the name of democracy and freedom. They even staged a hunger strike to bring to their government's attention the need for greater freedom in Chinese society.

For weeks the government allowed unprecedented actions by the students who peacefully demonstrated and expressed their views and beliefs about freedom and democracy. The world anxiously awaited the outcome of this monumental event. Would the world's largest Communist state begin the transition toward a more democratic society? Well, my colleagues, I believe we saw the answer to that question on the front of every newspaper. Mangled bodies of students lay around the square where they built makeshift barricades to protect themselves from the onslaught of Chinese troops and tanks. The students' statute of democracy was torn down and more students were killed as they tried to aid their fellow demonstrators who had been injured in the clash.

This is a harsh example that democracy must not be taken for granted. It is always being challenged throughout the world. Our forefathers gave their lives so that we could live under a form of government which stresses freedom and democracy. Let us not forget the students on the other side of the world who are trying to emulate what we accomplished over 200 years ago. It is our duty as Americans that we support the movement for democracy in China and not forget the students who lost their lives expressing what they believe.

CHINESE GOVERNMENT'S MANDATE HAS BEEN REMOVED

(Mr. LEACH of Iowa asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LEACH of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, it is always awkward to comment on the affairs of other states, but there comes a time in the affairs of states when it is fitting and proper for outsiders to speak. Given the brutal suppression in Tiananmen Square, now is one of those times.

This last year in the United States of America we had a political election which centered around the "L" word, whether we would go in a liberal or conservative direction. The people of America chose a more conservative direction.

Mr. Speaker, the bigger "L" word is the one being debated in China today. It is the question of legitimacy, whether their Government can continue to operate as a legitimate, civilized government. When the troops of the Chinese Army toppled the replica of the Statue of Liberty in Tiananmen Square and when they turned on their own people, the question of legitimacy has been raised in a very profound way. Government of, by, and for the people is not a government that turns against itself.

In Chinese heritage, there is a principle called the mandate of heaven, that the Government can rule until the mandate is removed. Historically, signs for the time of removal have been when a government collapses, when there are events like earthquakes and hurricanes, and I contend that the time has come for this government to change. It has removed its own mandate.

GREAT AMERICAN LOVE FEST WITH CHINA IS OVER

(Mr. RICHARDSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, the American honeymoon and love fest with China started in 1971 by Richard Nixon is over. Deng Xiaopeng, the once forward-looking Chinese leader, now joins the ranks of the Pinochets and the Noriegas as just another repressor.

President Bush is right in suspending military sales and conventional export of weapons. In fact, he should do more. Withdrawing the American Ambassador should be the next step. He is correct though in not pursuing a total break in relations.

Mr. Speaker, it is important to remember who started this revolution in China—not the learned elders, not church leaders, not politicians, but young students, young men and women who wanted democracy and open society, who wanted a chance for their futures, wanted freedom of the press and basic human rights.

We are not wrong in stepping up on their side. They are going to be the future leaders of this great and powerful nation. But for now, Mr. Speaker, the great American love fest with China is over.

TRAGIC EVENTS IN CHINA

(Mr. FRANK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, the events in China are tragic. The brutality with which the Chinese Government has turned on its own people for the crime of seeking freedom is outrageous, and the Chinese Government had better understand that no dangle of strategic advantage, no effort to invoke geopolitical calculations will deter the Government of this country from expressing its revulsion at their actions, and in fact taking actions here which will penalize them to the extent that we can.

They must not delude themselves into thinking that they can engage in that kind of brutality, turn their backs on the principles of freedom, and continue nonetheless to enjoy the kind of warming relations between societies and governments that we have had.

The Chinese Government has the ability to pull back. They cannot restore lives that were taken, but they can pull back from where they are now. If they value good relations with us, they should do that.

EVENTS IN CHINA

(Mr. GUNDERSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUNDERSON. Mr. Speaker, the events in China of the last month have told each and every one of us that there is truly no such thing as the American dream. Rather there is a universal dream in the hearts and minds of people all over the world who simply yearn for the chance to be free and the right to chart their own destiny.

Unfortunately, the events in China over this weekend have shown us once again history's terrible lesson of man's inhumanity to man by some governments.

As we in this country not only condemn those governmental actions by the Government of China, but also consider very seriously steps above and beyond those presently considered that can and should be taken, we must call on the United Nations to take action for countries all over the world like we have never seen the United Nations do. We here at home need to seriously consider what steps we can take to preserve the structure and the hope of democracy and freedom ever rebirthing itself again in China.

I would suggest that I am presently working and want to alert my colleagues on pursuing steps to see what can be done to preserve the opportunity for every Chinese student in this country to remain here, to continue their education, to continue learning what it means to be in a free and open society so that some day in the future they can return home to relight that hope for freedom in China.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

STEVE ADAMS WINS NATIONAL
MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS FATHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

HON. BARNEY FRANK

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday June 5, 1989

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, I was very pleased to be informed by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society that the winner of their National Father of the Year Award is Steve Adams, of North Attleboro, MA. Mr. Adams is to receive this award from the president on June 23, and that will be a moment of justifiable and enormous pride for Mr. Adams, his family, and his fellow residents of the town of North Attleboro. I want to add my congratulations to Mr. Adams for winning the award and to express my enormous admiration to him for the extremely good example he sets for all of us by the way in which he gives his life. And I would like to submit here the letter of nomination which the Massachusetts Multiple Sclerosis Society submitted in its successful quest to have Steve Adams win this award.

MASSACHUSETTS CHAPTER, NATIONAL MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS SOCIETY,
Buzzards Bay, MA, March 10, 1989.
MS FATHER OF THE YEAR SELECTION COMMITTEE,

Public Affairs Department, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, New York, NY.

DEAR MS FATHER OF THE YEAR SELECTION COMMITTEE: The Massachusetts Multiple Sclerosis Society is pleased and proud to submit the name of Steve Adams for nomination for the 1989 Father of the Year Award. Steve has been an active member of the Massachusetts MS Society since receiving the diagnosis of MS in 1982. He has spoken on an Employment Conference panel and led Counseling Support Groups for the Society. Steve was the Co-Chairman of the 1988 "Longest Day of Golf" fundraising event, and wrote and appeared in the PSA for that event. Steve's children were very involved with him in this undertaking and were the top fundraisers for this event, raising over $5,000.00 in one day for the MS Society. The Adams children's love, caring and determination were clearly seen as a reflection of these same qualities in their father, as they golfed relentlessly from 5AM till 8PM, stopping only due to darkness.

Despite Steve's MS he has continued to be very active and supportive of his children's activities. He attends his 10 year old daughter Kristin's girl scout father-daughter dances and overcomes rough terrain to cheer on his son Kevin who runs cross-country. He is his son Todd's biggest basketball fan, always there with words of encouragement. As you can see from the enclosed letters from his children, their father is an inspiration and a true hero to them. His philosophy comes across loud and clear to his children "My glass is not half empty it's half full!" The deep love that is apparent between Steve and his wife Carol only further reinforces to their children the importance of love, caring and family commitment.

I believe Steve Adams inspires other parents in his community to achieve a greater level of communication and active participation in their families due to his example. A quote from his neighbor Paul Lenahan (see enclosed letter) supports this. "He has been able to support his sons, Kevin and Todd, in their golf, track and basketball pursuits and Kristin's cheerleading activities and musical interests have been much encouraged and visibly supported by Steve. The end result is a family support structure that is full of love, respect and sensitivity for each other. Probably it's the kind of family life each of us should strive for."

In closing, as Steve says "I may have MS, but I wouldn't trade places with anybody in the world. My life is filled with more blessings than I ever imagined possible." I am sure that this feeling is echoed by Steve's family. Carol wouldn't trade her husband and Todd, Kevin and Kristin wouldn't trade their father for any other in the world, why should they, they have the best!!

Sincerely,

MARTHA MAYNARD,
Support Services Associate, Massachusetts MS Society, Southeastern Branch.

REV. STEPHEN ADAMIAK
HONORED

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Rev. Stephen Adamiak, pastor of St. Nicholas Ukrainian Church in my hometown of Nanticoke, PA. Reverend Adamiak is celebrating the golden anniversary of his ordination to the Byzantine Catholic priesthood.

Born August 14, 1914, in Kosice, Czechoslovakia, Reverend Adamiak is the son of the late Stephen and Anna Gulasy Adamiak. He attended elementary and secondary schools in Kosice and in 1935 began his seminary studies in Preson, Czechoslovakia. He was ordained by Bishop Paul Gajdis on January 11, 1939, and was married to Anna Romancik that same year.

In 1940 Reverend Adamiak became an assistant in the Cathedral Byzantine Church. From 1940 until 1945, he served in the front lines during World War II.

After the war, he was assigned to St. Nicholas Church in Slovinsky, Czechoslovakia. While in Slovinsky, Reverend Adamiak participated in a project to renovate the church after it was damaged by bombs during the war.

Reverend Adamiak arrived in the United States in 1965 and became an assistant to his uncle, Rev. Stephen Gulasy, in Parma, OH.

He spent a year in the United States and in 1966 went to Oshawa, Ontario, to serve as pastor at St. Mary's Church. Reverend Adamiak is responsible for building a new rectory for St. Mary's and the parish. In 1969, he became pastor of Holy Eucharist Church in Saskatchewan, Canada.

For the next 8 years, Reverend Adamiak was pastor of Epiphany of Our Lord Church in St. Petersburg, FL. While pastor, he built a new church hall for the church.

In 1980, Reverend Adamiak went to Mahanoy City, PA, to serve as pastor at St. Nicholas Church. From 1983 until his retirement in 1986, he was pastor at St. Mary's Church in Ford City, PA.

Reverend Adamiak was recalled from retirement in 1987 to serve as pastor at St. Nicholas Church in Nanticoke. He and his wife have two sons, Milan, residing in Czechoslovakia, and Gejza in St. Petersburg. They have four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

On Sunday, June 4, Reverend Adamiak will celebrate the 50th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. I join with Reverend Adamiak's family, friends, and parish in congratulating him on 50 years of exemplary service and devotion to the priesthood.

HONORARY JEWISH WAR
VETERAN

HON. MICHAEL R. McNULTY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. McNULTY. Mr. Speaker, I addressed the New York Jewish War Veterans Capital District Council yesterday in Colonie, NY, on the occasion of my being named an honorary Jewish war veteran.

I am proud of our Jewish war veterans, the sacrifices they have made and the suffering they endured in order that we may be free. I would like to include a copy of my remarks to be included in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD for today.

REMARKS BY CONGRESSMAN MICHAEL R. McNULTY IN ACCEPTING HONORARY MEMBERSHIP IN THE JEWISH WAR VETERANS

It is with a deep sense of humility that I accept this great honor you bestow upon me—honorary membership in the Jewish War Veterans.

Being a part of this great organization confers a responsibility upon me: To constantly do all in my power to uphold the principles of the Jewish War Veterans and all veterans, and to continue my efforts—as I have done in my 20 years in public office and earlier—to uphold and defend human freedom and democracy at home and abroad.

Patriotism and devotion to liberty are not new concepts to the Jewish people. In our country, the fledgling Jewish Community was in the forefront of the American Revolution and in subsequent conflicts at home and beyond our shores.

As I stand here, I think of this great tradition. I think of Francis Salvador of Charleston, South Carolina—the "Southern Paul Revere"—the first Jew to die for our country in the Revolution.

I think of a 68-year-old Jew named Gomez, who petitioned the Continental Congress for "permission to form a military company." He argued that he "could stop a bullet as well as a younger man." But he was turned down because of age.

In the American Civil War, more than 6,000 Jews served in the Union armies—almost 2,000 of them were New York volunteers. And 1,000 were on the Confederate side.

In that conflict, seven Northern Jews won the Congressional Medal of Honor. One of them, Benjamin B. Levy of the 1st New York volunteers won it for saving the steamer Empress, which was under attack by the Confederate gunboat Seabird.

In the Spanish American War and in World War I, the Jews continued to distinguish themselves. In World War II, Jewish numbers in the American military forces had grown to more than 550,000.

Again, in World War II—a Congressional Medal of Honor for Lieutenant Raymond Zussman of Detroit who single-handedly liberated a French town in the Rhone Valley, killing 17 German soldiers and capturing 92. Unfortunately, he later died in battle.

In Korea, in Vietnam, in every war, you were there. Your valor was rewarded with every medal within the power of the United States to give.

Loyal to the Jewish heritage, you fought as Americans. And as Americans, Jew and Gentile alike, dedicated to freedom, democracy, and social justice we never have—nor ever shall—forsake these principles.

In doing so, we pray for the day, in the words of Jeremiah, when "every man shall sit in safety, underneath his own vine and fig-tree, and there shall be none to make him afraid."

I thank you again, for this great honor.

PREVENTING ANOTHER S&L MESS

HON. WILLIS D. GRADISON, JR.

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. GRADISON. Mr. Speaker, providing the resources necessary to shut down insolvent thrifts, thereby shutting off the ongoing losses that the taxpayer must bear, is not the single most important objective of the S&L legislation.<sup>1</sup>

Equally important to providing adequate resources is ensuring that the thrift crisis does not recur. This is a separate issue because there can be another S&L crisis whether or not adequate resources are provided. That is, even if Congress fails to provide sufficient resources, we can ensure that industry and regulatory reforms are adequate to prevent another crisis.

The surest way to ensure another crisis is to weaken capital requirements. If those who support softer capital requirements prevail, we will have planted the seed for another crisis, and it will only be a matter of time before another S&L mess is upon us and the American taxpayer.

During this week's floor debate, some of our colleagues will make arguments for weakened capital requirements in the name of fairness. In my view, arguments are twisted, and must be rejected if we are to prevent another crisis.

At best there are competing fairneess arguments than cannot be mutually satisfied. Is it fair, for example, to permit some thrifts, regardless of how they got that way, to operate with substantially less than 3 percent real—core—capital for a very long time—15 to 40 years in some cases—while other thrifts must meet and maintain the 3-percent tangible capital requirement now or in the near future? Just how fair is it to the taxpayer, who bears the risk of another crisis—and pays the cost—if one is to allow thrifts to operate with insufficient core capital, to expose the American people to the probability of another bailout by not imposing reasonable capital requirements?

Make no mistake about it; the real reason thrifts are lobbying for looser capital requirements has nothing to do with fairness: they simply don't want to lower their leverage; that is, raise their capital-to-asset ratios. From their standpoint, this is understandable: why should they risk their own money, when they can risk Uncle Sam's? That of course is what caused the current mess, and that is what will get us into the next mess, unless we hold the line on capital.

There is nothing inherently difficult for solvent thrifts to increase their capitalization. A solvent institution can increase its capital-to-asset ratio by "selling down"—that is, by liquidating assets—or by raising new capital by issuing new stock.

Don't buy the argument that tightening capital requirements is unfair. Nothing is more fair.

THE RETIREMENT OF ROBERT CHARLES MORRISON

HON. THOMAS J. RIDGE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. RIDGE. Mr. Speaker, there are many milestones which we look forward to in our lives. When we do reach a significant point in our lives, we most always take the time to reflect on our personal accomplishments and contributions made to society. Today I rise in recognition of Mr. Robert Charles Morrison who will be retiring as Erie district director of the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole. Mr. Morrison has served with the board diligently since 1965. During his 24 years, he climbed the levels of a parole agent and was promoted to Erie district supervisor in 1972. In 1986, Mr. Morrison became the district director which dealt him the responsibility of seven northwestern Pennsylvania counties.

Mr. Morrison was born and raised in Wesleyville Borough, Erie County. After graduating from Wesleyville High School, he received a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Gannon University, Erie. He also involved himself with post graduate studies in education, social studies, and criminal justice. Mr. Morrison holds a Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction college teaching certificate as well.

As a veteran myself, I certainly appreciate Mr. Morrison's contributions to the defense of liberty and freedom. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II as a torpedo man, 3d class. After serving 18 months in the South Pacific, he received an honorable discharge. Following his military duty, Mr. Morrison worked as an accountant for General Electric, Erie, PA, and as justice of the peace for Wesleyville.

Throughout his many years in Erie County, Mr. Morrison has contributed a great deal of time to worthy organizations. His active civic roles include: board of trustees, Erie County Rape Crisis Center; advisory board—enforcement, Mercyhurst College, Erie; and the Seneca Area Law Enforcement Association. He is also a past president of Lake Erie Law Enforcement Association as well as a member of the Fraternal Order of Police.

Mr. Morrison is an instructor in municipal police training and his dedication to law and order has rewarded him with several prestigious honors. In 1986, Mr. Morrison received high level recognition by the Governor's [PA] Management Performance Award Program. He also received the James V. Kinnane Criminal Justice Award from Mercyhurst College in 1987.

Mr. Morrison is married to the former Eleanor Coccarelli and has four daughters and a son. He presently resides in his native home of Wesleyville. Mr. Speaker, I would like to commend Mr. Morrison on his outstanding dedication to his career and for his unselfish devotion to community involvement.

INTRODUCTION OF LEGISLA- TION TO INCREASE THE MINI- MUM WAGE AND ENHANCE THE EARNED INCOME TAX CREDIT

HON. TIMOTHY J. PENNY

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. PENNY. Mr. Speaker, along with our colleagues CHARLIE STENHOLM, and DAVE MCCURDY, I am today introducing legislation to increase the minimum wage to $4.25 by 1992 and to enhance and expand the earned income tax credit [EITC].

Under the provisions of this legislation, the EITC is adjusted to reflect family income and family size. Specifically, this bill combines the existing EITC and dependent care credit [DCC], creating one comprehensive program to help families and child. Under the provisions of the bill, in 1991, the current EITC credit would be adjusted by $700 for each preschool child and $350 for each school-age child, up to four children. The credit for preschool children is higher in order to assist families with child care needs, while the supplement for school-age children will help all families with the costs associated with raising children.

The bill also establishes a minimum EITC benefit that doesn't phase out until family income reaches $40,000. The costs associated with a minimum EITC benefit are the same as the current dependent care credit, but the benefits are spread among all families.

Because the EITC is available to low-income families and is refundable to recipients through their paychecks, it is an equitable way to assist families in coping with the expenses that result from raising a family. Because the EITC is targeted to those most in need of a wage supplement, it is the preferable alternative to a large boost in the minimum wage.

A hike in the minimum wage will increase the buying power of the working poor, but since the working poor constitute less than 20 percent of minimum wage workers, a minimum wage increase will result in a wage hike for a lot of workers—primarily teenagers—least in need. Economists agree on one thing: An increase in the minimum wage will produce displacement of current workers, fewer opportunities for new job seekers, and inflation. An enhanced EITC, on the other hand, will benefit the working poor without the economic consequences of a hike in the minimum wage.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, let us put the divisiveness over an increase in the minimum wage behind us and move on legislation to help America's working poor. Let us compromise to achieve this goal by recognizing that a modest increase in the minimum wage is needed, and that a significant adjustment in the EITC is the long-term solution for helping the working poor. This legislation, in my view, is the compromise that can win bipartisan support and can become law before the end of the year. We can and should work together to achieve these important goals.

Mr. Speaker, I urge you and my other colleagues to support this important legislation to help America's working poor.

A TRIBUTE TO MR. WINSTEAD

HON. HOWARD L. BERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting a highly respected citizen and outstanding leader of the community, Jim Winstead. He will be honored by the Mission Hills Chamber of Commerce and the Utter McKinley Mortuary for his numerous years of service and dedication.

A native of North Carolina, Jim Winstead has shown a longstanding commitment to the San Fernando Valley. For many years, he has selflessly contributed to an impressive array of organizations. Jim's successful work within the community stems from his strong spirit, his unlimited energy, and a sincere interest and concern for those around him.

Jim is greatly admired and a model member of the community. His willingness to help others as well as his devotion to his career are well known. This year marks Jim's 50th year with Utter McKinley. These qualities are complimented and broadened by his many contributions to the people around him.

For many years, Jim has served on the Mission Hills Chamber of Commerce Board. He exhibited outstanding leadership during his two terms as president of that institution. He was also awarded the title of honorary sheriff of Mission Hills. Jim, along with former Councilman Louis Nowell were instrumental in the cleanup and beautification of historic Brand Boulevard, now one of the most attractive boulevards in the San Fernando Valley.

Jim's contributions to the community has assured its continued growth and prosperity. He and his wife, Mary, reside in Mission Hills and have three daughters, a son, six grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Jim Winstead is an invaluable member of our community. It is a distinct pleasure to ask my colleagues to join me in honoring a remarkable individual, Jim Winstead.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE NATIONAL APARTMENT ASSO- CIATION

HON. JAMES H. BILBRAY

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. BILBRAY. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise to welcome the National Apartment Association, their local affiliates, and their exhibitors to my home district of Las Vegas, NV.

The National Apartment Association [NAA] will be hosting their annual convention and exhibition in Las Vegas from June 8 through June 13. They will be meeting at Bally's Grand Resort, one of the many fine resorts that Las Vegas offers. This annual meeting will present an exciting variety of motivational speakers, and there will be informative seminars designed to educate and improve the apartment industry.

The NAA is proud to boast that this year, 1989, is their 50th anniversary, that this is a half-century of serving the people of the multi-housing industry. In celebration of this golden anniversary they will be hosting A Night of Solid Gold with world-renowned entertainment.

The National Apartment Association, a non-profit trade association, has been a great source of input in designing and amending legislation that applies to the needs and problems of the multihousing industry. We in Congress count on them to provide their expertise and insight as we face difficult legislative questions in housing and related areas.

As a native Nevadan and Representative from Las Vegas, I am proud to welcome the NAA to the Entertainment Capital of the World. Mr. Speaker, please join with me and my colleagues in welcoming the National Apartment Association and all those involved in the apartment industry to Las Vegas, NV.

CONGRESSIONAL BICENTENNIAL
COIN FIRST STRIKE CEREMO-NY ON JUNE 14, 1989

HON. LINDY (MRS. HALE) BOGGS

OF LOUISIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mrs. BOGGS. Mr. Speaker, late last year the 100th U.S. Congress passed the U.S. Congress Commemorative Coin Act. This legislation directed the U.S. Mint to issue special commemorative coins to honor the bicentennial of the U.S. Congress. Proceeds from the sale of these coins will be turned over to the Capitol Preservation Commission for preservation efforts in the U.S. Capitol Building. The minting of these coins will be done at no net cost to the U.S. Government.

I would like to call your attention to an historic event that will launch the Commemorative Coins Program. The Director of the Mint, Mrs. Donna Pope, has organized a special "first strike" event, that will be held Wednesday, June 14, at 10:30 a.m. on the east plaza of the Capitol. This ceremony will mark the first time that a coin has been struck outside a U.S. mint facility. Four presses will be brought to the Capitol from the Philadelphia Mint for this occasion, and the Secretary of the Treasury, along with Members of Congress and other dignitaries, will strike the first of the congressional commemorative coins.

The Coin Act authorizes the minting of up to 1 million $5 gold coins, 10 million $1 silver coins, and 10 million half dollar copper coins, with designs emblematic of the bicentennial of the U.S. Congress. Although the coins are designated as legal tender, they will be keepsake items, as the precious metals used in the gold and silver coins, and the limited quantity in which they are produced, will create an actual value considerably higher than the face value.

All coins minted under this act shall include a surcharge of $35 per coin for the $5 coins, $7 per coin for the $1 coin, and $1 per coin for the half dollar coin. Surcharges received by the Treasury will be deposited in the Capitol Preservation Fund and be available to the U.S. Capitol Preservation Commission.

It is altogether appropriate that these surcharges should be dedicated to preserving the Capitol. During George White's tenure as Architect of the Capitol, much has been accomplished to restore and make this great building beautiful. But so much more could be done if funds were available.

Proceeds from the sale of the congressional coins will be used to pay for fine artwork, furnishings, restoration, and other projects associated with the history of the Capitol. The sale of U.S. Congress commemorative coins seems an ideal source of funds for these preservation efforts.

Once these restoration projects are completed, the Capitol building will be an even more beautiful and meaningful place for the citizens of this country, and for people from throughout the world to visit. We should do no less for what has appropriately been called "the Shrine of Democracy."

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

MEDICAL MISSION FROM HIROSHIMA, JAPAN

HON. BARBARA BOXER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. Speaker, the seventh biennial medical mission from Hiroshima, Japan, will arrive in San Francisco on June 14 to conduct a series of medical examinations for Americans of Japanese and Korean ancestry who survived the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. No other program in the United States specifically addresses the medical concerns and needs of the survivors, also known by the Japanese term "hibakusha." It is my pleasure to welcome the doctors and to recognize this humanitarian effort which has been sponsored for the last 14 years by the Hiroshima Prefectural Medical Association, the Japanese Ministry of Health, and Hiroshima City and Prefecture, and other medical organizations in Hiroshima.

The team leader for this year's medical visit is Katsumi Hirata, M.D., chief, first department of internal medicine, Hiroshima Red Cross Hospital and Atomic Bomb Survivors Hospital. Subleader for the team is Chikako Ito, M.D., Deputy Director, Hiroshima Atomic Bomb Survivors Health Clinic. This is Dr. Ito's fifth medical visit and I wish to thank her for her dedication and skill. The other members of the medical team are Kazunori Kodama, M.D., associate chief, department of clinical studies, Radiation Effects Research Foundation; Hideo Sasaki, M.D., chief, section of medicine, department of clinical studies, Radiation Effects Research Foundation; Sinzo Ishibashi, M.D., doctor, clinical laboratory center of Hiroshima City Medical Association; Keigo Dote, M.D., doctor, coronary care unit and department of internal medicine, Hiroshima Hospital; and Tadaaki Watanabe, M.D., research associate, department of epidemiology, Radiation Effects Research Foundation. Representing the Japanese Ministry of Health and Welfare is Mr. Ryoji Kanasaki, assistant director, Planning Section, Health Service Bureau.

These medical examinations, conducted in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Honolulu, and Maui, are attended by hibakusha from all parts of the United States. Of the estimated 1,000 American survivors of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki who are living in the United States, over 60 percent are American citizens and over 30 percent are permanent residents of this country. Many hibakusha are American citizens by birth who were either visiting relatives or attending school in Japan and were unable to return to the United States at the outbreak of the war. Others, including a number of brides of American servicemen, are naturalized citizens.

In 1987 the medical team conducted 379 examinations, including 116 held at the University of California and Pacific Presbyterian Medical Centers in San Francisco. At each examination site, the doctors are assisted by American volunteers and hosted by local medical associations. By providing ongoing, long-term examinations, the Japanese medical team has been able to direct American hibakusha to appropriate medical treatment for medical problems related to their radiation exposure. Additionally, American hibakusha requiring specialized medical treatment are provided free medical treatment in Japan.

The medical research and treatment facilities in Hiroshima are a precious international resource. Hiroshima extends its humanitarian aid to the United States, Canada, South America, and other parts of Asia. Because of their place in history, the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki have become symbols and centers of the efforts to achieve peace in our world. I think it is fitting that we recognize this noble cause and the inspiration it provides for those who work for peace in our country.

TRIBUTE TO JEAN AND SIGMUND "SIGI" BARDACH

HON. HOWARD L. BERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to a remarkable couple—Jean and Sigmund "Sigi" Bardach who will be presented with the prestigious Founder's Award by the West Coast Region of the Orthodox Union and National Conference of Synagogue Youth. They will be honored at a gala event in recognition of their lifetime service to both this organization and the Jewish community at large.

Born and educated in Vienna, Austria, Sigi Bardach escaped Hitler's Europe on a student scholarship to the Haifa Technion. Jean Bardach was born in Poland and survived the war through the herosim of a courageous soul who helped both Jean and her sister escape the ghetto and survive under assumed identities. As children, both Sigi and Jean were among the first wave of survivors to reach American shores.

Throughout their lives in the United States—even through times of hardship—the Bardachs have devoted much of their time, love, and energy to the youth of their community. Their home has always been an open house to young people in times of trouble.

During three decades of activity in the North Hollywood Jewish community, Sigi has served the Shaarey Zedek congregation as vice president of education, chairman of religious affairs as well as working with the congregation's young people as group discussion leader, facilitator for NCSY members and as youth board chairman.

Jean has been an active member of the Shaarey Zedek sisterhood and was youth director of the synagogue's chapter of NCSY for many years. She is currently a member of American Mizrahi Women, the American Congress of Jews from Poland and is a case aide volunteer for the Jewish Family Service.

The Bardachs have two children, Howard and Sharon, and a son-in-law Larry and are the proud grandparents of Jenny, Mindy, Avi, and Eliana.

Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct honor to pay tribute to Sigi and Jean Bardach—community leaders and truly dedicated citizens.

REV. JOHN C. MASAKOWSKI
HONORED

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, June 5, 1989

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Reverend John C. Masakowski, now celebrating 40 years of service in the Holy Priesthood.

A native of Nanticoke, PA, Father Masakowski is 1 of 10 children born to the late John and Stasia Masakowski. He attended Nanticoke area schools and graduated from St. Mary's College in Orchard Lake, MI. He completed his studies for the priesthood at SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, also located in Orchard Lake, MI.

Father Masakowski's first assignment was at St. Mary's of Czestochowa in Swoyersville, PA, where he served for over 10 years. During this time, Father Masakowski organized a council of the Knights of Columbus. Today, 27 years later, the council has its own home in Luzerne and a membership of over 550 Knights.

In 1983, Father Masakowski was instrumental in organizing the Fourth Degree Assembly in honor of Our Lady of Czestochowa and having it approved by the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council. This is the first assembly in the United States named in honor of Our Lady of Czestochowa.

As pastor of St. John the Baptist Church in Larksville, Father Masakowski played a vital role in completely renovating the interior and exterior of the church. He also helped obtain new pews, carpeting, and an electronic organ.

Father Masakowski was recently appointed diocesan moderator of the Catholic League for Religious Assistance to Poland. This group provides financial assistance from all parishes of Polish heritage to the church in Poland.

He prepared and chaired the national convention of the Catholic League, held in October of 1987, in Scranton, PA, which was acclaimed as one of the finest held in its 45 years of existence.

On Sunday, the 4th of June, Father Masakowski will join with his friends, family, and parish in a Mass of thanksgiving at St. John's Church. I know that my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives will join me in congratulating and thanking Rev. John C. Masakowski for 40 years of devoted service to the priesthood.
